Recalls That Fill the Hygiene Schedule

The six-month cleaning card and its cousins: an overdue series, periodontal maintenance, X-rays due, and a back-to-school push. Real patients carry three of them, with chalk tally marks, a plant marker, and a packing list drawn on top, beside the punch card and the X-ray film.

R1 Six-month cleaning recall

8.5 x 5.5 · Postcard

A coffee-shop punch card for cleanings, three punched and the next one circled

R2 Overdue recall series 9 12 18 months

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

Chalk tally marks for the months since the last cleaning; the count changes per touch

R3 Periodontal maintenance recall

5.5 x 11 · Postcard, generic wording

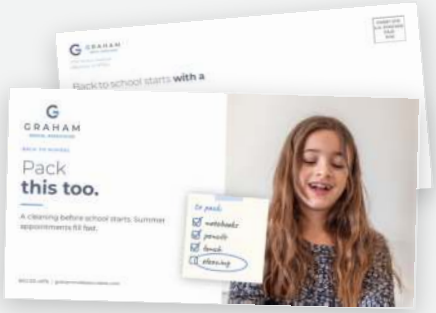

A garden plant marker: Perennial, your gums

R4 X-rays due

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

A card front that reads like the X-ray film itself

R5 Back-to-school cleaning push

5.5 x 11 · Postcard

A packing list with everything checked but the cleaning

Letters That Carry the Details

Unscheduled treatment, after-care instructions, a network change, and an estimate. The layout, the table, and the next step are designed; fees and clinical content stay with the practice.

L1 Unscheduled treatment follow-up

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

The plan laid out as a simple table with three ways to move forward beside it

L2 Post-op care instructions

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

A letter with a three-stop healing timeline beside it

L3 Leaving a plan network

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

Reassurance first: what stays the same comes before what changes

L4 Treatment estimate and pre-authorization

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

An estimate letter with the plan table and the patient portion made plain
