Checkups That Keep Pace

A well visit due, a birthday that doubles as the yearly reminder, a vaccine nudge with no schedule attached, and a no-guilt welcome back. Each card borrows something from a real visit: a measuring tape, a doorframe pencil mark, a bandage, the sign-in sheet.

R1 Well visit due

8.5 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

A tailor's tape printed with the well-visit months, the due visit circled, running out of a photo of a baby being measured

R2 Birthday card and yearly checkup

5.5 x 11 · Postcard, generic wording

A doorframe pencil mark with the child's name and age written beside it, over a photo of a boy measuring himself on the wall

R3 Vaccines may be due

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

A giant adhesive bandage stuck across the card, over a photo of a boy flexing his just-bandaged arm

R4 We've missed you

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

The waiting-room sign-in sheet with the child's name already written and the time-in column reading whenever you're ready

From First Week to Twenty-One

A meet-and-greet for expectant parents, the kindergarten form already signed, a hall pass for the school-age checkup, a door hanger for teen visits, and a diploma for graduating to adult care. Only verified AAP visit ages appear.

A1 Meet the pediatrician, for expectant parents

8.5 x 5.5 · Postcard

A hospital ID band with the baby's name and the first-visit timing, beside a photo of a newborn on the scale

A2 Kindergarten physical and school forms

5.5 x 11 · Postcard

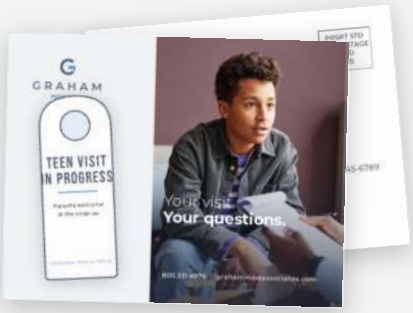

The school health form, boxes checked and signed by the doctor, tucked over a photo of a girl racing toward school

A3 School-age yearly checkup

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

A wooden hall pass with the child's name and reason, yearly checkup, hanging over a photo of a boy at the kitchen table

A4 Teen checkup

4.25 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

A door hanger that reads teen visit in progress, parents welcome at the wrap-up, beside a photo of a teen laughing with his doctor

A5 Graduating to adult care

8.5 x 5.5 · Postcard, generic wording

The card is the diploma: a certificate with a class-of-21 seal, promoting the patient to grown-up care

Sealed Letters for Growing Families

A welcome-baby packet with the visit schedule, a back-to-school care plan update, the practice's vaccine policy in writing, and the forms that come with turning 18. Clinical and legal content is practice-supplied.

L1 Welcome baby packet

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

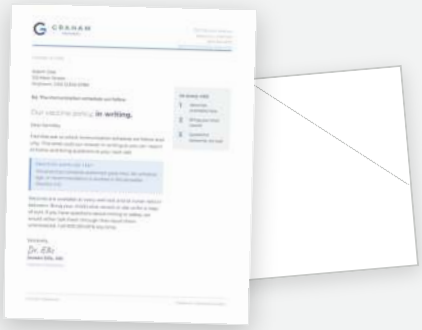

A welcome letter with the well-visit schedule as a numbered rail down the side

L2 Back-to-school care plan update

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

A letter that gets the plan updated before the first day, with the condition left entirely to the practice

L3 Vaccine policy letter

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

A plain letter that holds the practice's own schedule statement, with the template printing none of it

L4 Turning 18 consent and records

8.5 x 11 letter · Sealed letter

A letter with the three enclosed forms listed in a rail, so the signatures needed are clear at a glance
